Spruson & Ferguson opens an office in Indonesia

IPH is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary Spruson & Ferguson has opened an office in Jakarta, Indonesia. The new office will take responsibility for work IPH companies currently send to agents, and will enable the group to extend the services it currently offers in Indonesia. More broadly the new office will help develop IPH's strategy of providing comprehensive intellectual property services in secondary market countries to the group's worldwide client base.
