Spruson & Ferguson opens office in Thailand

IPH is pleased to announce that its subsidiary, Spruson & Ferguson, has now commenced practice in Bangkok, Thailand.

The Thailand office is the newest addition to Spruson & Ferguson's network of offices in Asia-Pacific adding to its offices in Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and China.

The office will be overseen by the highly regarded U.S. intellectual property attorney, Daniel Greif (<http://www.spruson.com/danielgreif/>). Dan has over 25 years' experience having held a number of senior IP positions including 17 years as Trademark Counsel with The Coca-Cola Company (USA), Senior Trademark Counsel for Sony Corporation (Japan) as well as a period in private practice in the USA. Most recently Dan was the Head of the Intellectual Property Practice at one of Thailand's leading law firms.

The new office is an important addition to Spruson & Ferguson's growing practice in Asia to service its clients' needs directly in this key jurisdiction.

More broadly the new office reinforces IPH's strategy of providing comprehensive intellectual property services in secondary market countries to the group's worldwide client base.
