The quorum for a PRN Committee meeting is two (2) PRN Committee Members.

Attendance at meetings

- a) Directors who are not PRN Committee Members may attend meetings at the invitation of the PRN Committee Chairman.
- b) The Managing Director, appropriate members of Management and any external adviser are to attend such portion of each meeting as requested by the PRN Committee Chairman. The Managing Director is not to be present when the PRN Committee discusses issues relating to the Managing Director.

- c) The Company Secretary is to attend PRN Committee meetings, or to otherwise receive an update from the PRN Committee Chairman on proceedings of PRN Committee meetings, to ensure minutes are taken of each meeting.

Report

- a) The PRN Committee will report on its meetings to the Board.
- b) The PRN Committee will annually review and report to the Board on the diversity objectives established by the Group.
- c) Recommendations of the PRN Committee are to be referred to the Board for approval.

5. Authority

Seek Information

The PRN Committee is authorised by the Board to seek any information it requires from any employee of the Group in order to perform its duties and all employees must comply with such requests.

Use of Consultants

In connection with its duties, the PRN Committee is empowered to select, set the terms of reference and appoint such consultants or other advisers as the PRN Committee considers necessary or appropriate, at the Company's expense.

Remuneration Policies and Practices

The PRN Committee may seek advice from individuals on remuneration policies and practices, but no individual should be directly involved in deciding their own remuneration.

No Executive Powers

The PRN Committee shall have no executive powers with respect to its findings and recommendations.

6. People Matters - Responsibilities and Duties

Oversight of People and Culture Matters

The PRN Committee is responsible for:

- a) assisting the Board (including by reviewing and making recommendations to the Board) in its oversight of people matters, including employee attraction, engagement, development and retention;
- b) overseeing strategies to monitor and transform culture across the Group;
- c) assisting the Board (including by reviewing and making recommendations to the Board) in its oversight and monitoring of work health, safety and wellbeing; and
- d) reviewing and making recommendations to the Board in relation to strategic human resources policies and practices, including with respect to diversity and inclusion policies.

Other

The PRN Committee will consider any other people matters referred to the PRN Committee by the Board.

7. Remuneration Matters - Responsibilities and Duties

Responsibilities

The PRN Committee is responsible for:

- a) the review and monitoring of the Group remuneration and incentive framework applying to Non-Executive Directors, Executive Directors and Senior Executives and the associated strategies, systems, policies and processes implemented, and reported on, by Management;
- b) approving the remuneration and incentive awards of Senior Executives based on the recommendations of the Managing Director;
- c) approval of pools of annual grants of equity and any other individual equity offers to Senior Executives and other employees; and
- d) the review of draft reports on remuneration matters contained within the Company's Annual Report and any associated documents for public release prior to consideration by the Board, to ensure they represent a true and fair view of such matters for reporting purposes.

Recommendations

The PRN Committee will review and make recommendations to the Board on remuneration matters, including:

- a) the review and monitoring and recommendation of changes to the remuneration and incentive framework (including the equity plan framework and any diversity considerations) for Non-Executive Directors, Executive Directors and Senior Executives;
- b) the remuneration of Directors;
- c) remuneration packages to be awarded to Senior Executives;
- d) equity-based remuneration plans for Senior Executives and other employees;
- e) superannuation arrangements for Directors, Senior Executives and other employees;
- f) whether there is any gender or other inappropriate bias in remuneration for Directors, Senior Executives or other employees;
- g) performance based measures (financial and non-financial), targets and performance outcomes under incentive plans for the Directors and Senior Executives; and
- h) the reporting of remuneration matters contained within the Company's Annual Report and any associated documents for public release, to ensure they represent a true and fair view of such matters for reporting purposes.

Remuneration and Incentive Framework

The PRN Committee's objectives in determining the remuneration and incentive framework, policies and practices are to:

- a) motivate the Directors and Senior Executives to pursue the long-term growth and success of the Group;
 - b) demonstrate a clear relationship between performance and remuneration;
 - c) involve an appropriate balance between fixed and incentive remuneration, reflecting the short and long-term performance objectives of the Company;
 - d) differentiate between higher and lower performers through the use of a performance management framework;
 - e) be compliant with all relevant laws and regulations and have regard to Shareholder expectations; and
 - f) be informed by market data and remuneration practices of ASX listed companies.

Other

The PRN Committee will consider any other remuneration matters referred to the PRN Committee by the Board.

8. Nominations Matters - Responsibilities and Duties

Selection, Appointment, Re-election and Performance of Directors

- a) In assisting the Board in the appointment, re-election and performance of Directors, the PRN Committee will:
 - i. assess the necessary and desirable competencies of Directors;
 - ii. assess that Directors have the appropriate mix of competencies to enable the Board to discharge its responsibilities effectively;
 - iii. develop Board succession plans so that an appropriate balance of skills, experience, expertise and diversity is maintained;
 - iv. make recommendations to the Board relating to the appointment, re-election and retirement of Directors;
 - v. review the time commitment required from Non-Executive Directors and whether Directors are meeting that commitment; and
 - vi. schedule regular Board performance reviews.
- b) In reviewing the composition and performance of the Board, the PRN Committee will consider the term served by Non-Executive Directors so that, over time, new Directors are appointed to challenge existing approaches and to incorporate new ideas and energy.
- c) In selecting and recommending the appointment of new Directors, the PRN Committee will:
 - i. adopt a skills matrix to identify any deficient competencies in the attributes, skills and experience of the Board;
 - ii. assess candidates with regard to the diversity objectives of the Group;

- iii. engage external consultants where necessary to assist in the selection process of suitable candidates; and
 - iv. recommend candidates who have the appropriate range of attributes, skills, experience and expertise that will best complement Board effectiveness.
- d) In addition, any candidate for a new Director position must confirm that they have the necessary time to devote to their Board position. In support of this confirmation, the candidate must provide the PRN Committee with details of other commitments and an indication of time involved.

Induction and Continuing Development of Directors

- a) The PRN Committee should ensure each new Director undertakes an induction program which enables them to gain an understanding of:
 - i. the intellectual property services industry and the Group's operations;
 - ii. the Group's financial, strategic, operational and risk management position;
 - iii. the culture and values of the Group;
 - iv. their rights, duties and responsibilities and those of Management;
 - v. Board and Committee meeting arrangements, including the role of the Committees; and
 - vi. constructive and respectful relations between Board members, and between the Board, Management and other stakeholders.
- b) The PRN Committee will review that Directors have access to appropriate continuing education to update and enhance their skills and knowledge (including key developments in the Company and within the intellectual property industry).

Committee Membership

When it is considered appropriate, the PRN Committee is to review the composition of Committees and submit recommendations to the Board for changes to those Committees.

Executive Appointments

The PRN Committee is to review and endorse recommendations made by the Managing Director for Executive appointments.

Other

The PRN Committee will consider any other nomination matters referred to the PRN Committee by the Board.

8. Committee Performance

To determine whether it is functioning effectively, once each year the PRN Committee shall:

- a) review this PRN Committee Charter; and
- b) undertake an evaluation of its performance.
